

QGC

WORKING WITH QGC

QGC IS COMMITTED TO SUPPORTING EMPLOYMENT GROWTH AND ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT IN THE AREAS WHERE WE OPERATE.

As one of Australia's leading natural gas producers, Shell QGC is focused on developing Queensland's world-class onshore gas reserves. QGC produces natural gas from wells drilled into coal seams in the Surat Basin. Our operations include more than 2,600 production wells, 24 field compression stations, and six central processing plants.

QGC values its diverse workforce, and is committed to providing a safe, supportive and inclusive work environment for all our employees and contractors.

WWW.SHELL.COM.AU/QGC

Our business relies on having high quality, experienced and qualified workforce across a range of disciplines. Working with QGC, provides people with an opportunity to build a career that focusses on securing an energy future for generations to come. It offers you a platform from which you can propel your career and work on a diverse range of projects. You will have the opportunity to work with a diverse group of people as you discover your potential, and build your career.

APPLYING FOR A JOB AT QGC

Vacancies at QGC are advertised on our website. If you discover the right job for you, click the "Send your application online" button.

If you don't find a suitable vacancy, you can sign up to create a personal profile.

If you are interested in furthering your career at QGC, set up a job alert at www.shell.com.au/careers

WORKING WITH CONTRACTORS

Many people also work with QGC in contractor roles with a range of organisations that supply to us.

To stay visible to QGC and our contractors visit the EconomX website – economx.com and register as a supplier to QGC. Once you are set up, subscribe to find out more about the organisations that supply to us.

QGC and our major contractors will publish work packages and enquiries through EconomX.

You can also download a copy of our 'Becoming a supplier' fact sheet from our website for further details.

BUILDING STRENGTH THROUGH DIVERSITY

QGC has partnered with Indigenous Work Stars (IWS) to help Indigenous people, including Traditional Owners in our footprint, find employment in a range of industries and communities throughout Australia.

IWS provides practical support with resume-writing and interview skills, and post placement support and mentoring.

Current job vacancies can be viewed here www.workstars.com.au/jobs

You can register your details with IWS here – www.workstars.com.au/node/2412

PATHWAYS

The QGC Pathways Apprentice and Trainee Program supports local people to gain employment with QGC in the Western Downs area. Mature age workers, women and Indigenous people are strongly encouraged to apply for the program.

To find out more about the QGC Pathways Program visit www.shell.com.au/careers/qgc-pathways

For further information about careers at Shell and QGC please visit our website at www.shell.com.au/careers

CONTACT DETAILS

Please contact a member of the community engagement team for more information.

QGC Community Information Centre,
18-20 Bell St, Chinchilla

QGC Office
27 Royd St, Wandoan

1800 030 443
qgcommunity@shell.com